This prestigious property for sale was built using quality materials. The load-bearing structures of the villa and the farmhouse are made of reinforced concrete, while the floors and roofs are made of brick and this makes them excellent anti-seismic structures. The façade of the farmhouse is largely in exposed brick but also has a plastered area, while the facade of the villa is entirely plastered. Both structures have been wisely renovated towards the end of the 90s with top quality materials: the flooring is in terracotta, the windows and shutters are made of wood, the doors are armored, the electrical and water systems are up to standard. The heating system is autonomous with pellet and wood chip boilers, air conditioning is present in all housing units.

This prestigious property for sale is located in one of the most beautiful areas of Fermo, province of the Marche Region (Italy). Perfect for its proximity to all essential services, the City of Fermo, Porto San Giorgio and the sea.

This villa with farmhouse is an excellent solution as a luxury structure for tourist rentals, given its subdivision into several residential units or as a farm capable of varying from the world of catering to the tourist one.
